

CONTINENT OF MEDIA 00-10, produced Dec 7, 2000 by Glenn Hauser

- *RFPI has new frequency 7480, and soon 15065 ex-15049; and new repeat times for COM, 6, 12, 18 hours after Fri 1900, Sat 1730, Tue 2000
- *COM also available at DXing.com, thanks to support of Universal Radio
- *WNOP, jazz station on 740 in Newport KY, Cincinnati market, being sold to Catholics from Jan 1 [added Dec 26: see!]
http://enquirer.com/editions/2000/12/20/tem_jazz_will_sign_off.html
- *WCBS Newsradio 88 moved from Black Rock to another NYC building; Bob Foxworth recollects his years there
- *Historical aircheck: the Sept 21, 1939 broadcast day recorded from WJSV, cassettes for sale. Info at http://weeklystandard.com/magazine/mag_6_10_00/gelernter_bkart_6_10_00.asp
- *KNX won't stream live, but oldtime radio shows may be downloaded after broadcast at <http://www.mediabay.com/knx1070/drama.asp>
- *NRC AM Mapbook of US & Canadian MW stations, keyed by number with coordinates and instructions on figuring distances. US$17.95 in US & Canada (NY + sales tax), US$23.50 to Europe, from National Radio Club, Publications Center, Box 164, Dept W, Mannsville, NY 13661-0164 USA
- *AFRTS intercepted with far-right talkshow
- *WKY-TV tried to prevent any other TV station in Oklahoma
- *Dallas: jingle capital of the world
- *COM 00-10, wghauser@hotmail.com or P O Box 1684, Enid OK 73702 USA;
<https://www.angelfire.com/ok/worldofradio/>
- *Strife at Rice University between students and administration who locked them out from KTRU 91.7; relaying WRN in interim [later: dispute was settled Dec. 8]
- *WNIB, Chicago classical, sold for $169 million; comparing it to competitor WFMT
- *President signs bill authorizing local agencies to enforce laws against interference from CB, lacking FCC; hams exempted
- *Colombian broadcast station heard in Canada on 254.1 MHz, accidental military satellite relay?
- *Jay Novello's eastern Cuban bandscan from Exuma, including audio clips: <http://havana.iwsp.com/radio/exuma/>
- *Guatemala's FM band overcrowded; Mayas get no stations
- *The revolutionary donut antenna ###